Conceived in the studios of Fulvio de Simoni — the internationally renowned yacht designer in Milan, Italy — the Trojan 350 Express is a futuristic glimpse of what the 21st century will bring in express yacht design. Her striking lines and contours are destined to be the most imitated look in the years to come.

A high-tech helm station and spacious cockpit provide a bold arena for entertainment or relaxation. The spacious salon evokes the epitome of quality and good taste with Berber carpeting, bird's-eye maple cabinets and trim, and designer fabrics which highlight the ingeniously designed seating, sleeping, and storage fixtures.

Beneath the surface, her contemporary hull design features Simoni-designed propeller pockets for a shallower draft, thrilling acceleration, and superior stability at high speeds. Completely original — inside and out — the Trojan 350 Express is the embodiment of independent thinking in yacht design.
